

Privacy Statement

Who we are

The London School of Architecture (LSA) is an independent higher education provider registered as a Charitable Incorporated Organisation with the Charity Commission.

How your personal data will be used

The LSA is committed to respecting and protecting the privacy of anyone using our site and the confidentiality of any information you provide with. The purpose of this statement is to set out how we use any personal information that we may obtain from you.

We hold and process personal data about you in order to keep you updated with the latest LSA news and events. We usually keep this information until you ask to be removed from our mailing list.

Your rights

You have a number of rights with regards to how your data is protected.

By providing us with your information you will have the right to access and rectify your personal details. If you did wish to access your data, you shall have the right to view or receive a copy of the information in a commonly used format such as a PDF document or an e-mail. Any information which is processed by automated means and is purely required for the performance of a contract, may be transmitted to another data controller if you request it. You may also have the right to ask for the processing of your personal data to be restricted or even erased. Whether or not you exercise the right to erasure, the LSA will erase your personal data in certain situations and particularly when the data is no longer required.

Objections

At any time, you may have the right to object to the processing of your personal data where processing is conducted for legitimate business reasons, matters in the public interest, direct marketing, or profiling. If you exercise this right, then unless we have compelling reasons not to, we shall cease to process your data wherever data protection laws allow.

Why the personal data is legally required

The information we wish to gather about you is collected on the grounds of legitimate interest in the LSA's news and developments.

More information

If you have any queries or you wish to speak to us about how your information will be used, then please contact us at info@the-lsa.org.

Complaints

In the event that you should have a complaint about how your data has been processed by us, we would like to hear from you so that we may put it right at info@the-lsa.org. However, you will always have the right to lodge a complaint with the Information Commissioner's Office.
